Mr. Adrian Gustavo Diaz, 28, Argentina

Adrian Diaz is from Álvarez, a small rural town in the south of Santa Fe province, Argentina. Due to extreme poverty, he experienced homelessness alongside his mother and began working at the age of ten while still attending school. He has always been motivated by civic causes and volunteer work. During high school, he ran for president of the Student Council—a position he won three times. After volunteering at the Youth Olympic Games, he was invited to join the first Forum of Children, Adolescents, and Youth organized by ECLAC (UN) as an Argentine Youth Delegate. Possesses extensive experience in public service and has training in human rights, finance, and the fight against corruption. Member of CAM Youth Secretariat and CICRAL, and participates in the Civil Society Participation Mechanism of the ECLAC Forum of the Countries of Latin America on Sustainable Development. In 2026, he became a Volunteer Firefighter and obtained a University degree as an Agro-industry Technician.
