Mr. Bright Ofori, 32, Ghana

Bright Ofori is the Founder and Executive Director of The Bright Future Alliance (TBFA), a youth-led civil society organization with a special focus on Africa. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Administration and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Ghana. His role as a youth advocate has been marked by active engagement in initiatives dedicated to promoting human rights, combating corruption, advancing environmental sustainability, and enhancing governance. His passion for youth development has driven him to collaborate with multilateral organizations, governments, and diplomatic missions worldwide. He has contributed to shaping global discussions and policies through engagements with key institutions, including the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC), European Parliament, North-South Centre of the Council of Europe, Ghana's Office of the Special Prosecutor, Ministry of Youth and Sports, European Union Delegation in Ghana, and many others. At the UN Regional Office in Kenya, Bright contributed to developing a roadmap to strengthen the role of non-governmental actors (young people, academia, and civil society) in the fight against corruption, which was submitted by the Government of the United States of America in December 2023 during the Tenth Session of the Conference of the States Parties (CoSP10) to the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC).
