Ms. Defne Korkmaz, 21, Türkiye

Defne Korkmaz is a Turkish graduate in Management of International Social Challenges from Erasmus University Rotterdam and is currently pursuing a Master's in Governance of Crisis at Leiden University. She serves as an External Relations and Fundraising Officer at Global Shapers The Hague, contributing to the NGO Link project and website. Previously, she spent two years as Project Manager at the Red Cross Rotterdam Student Desk, coordinating humanitarian awareness, refugee inclusion, and fundraising initiatives. With a strong interest in governance, human rights, and international affairs, Defne is passionate about addressing societal challenges. Coming from Turkey, where corruption and governance remain important concerns, she believes young people with firsthand perspectives deserve a stronger voice in international spaces. She hopes to contribute to platforms that promote accountability, good governance, and positive social change while ensuring that Turkey is represented.
