Ms. Grecia Alessandra Flores Hinostroza, 22, Peru

Grecia Flores Hinostroza is a legal-policy researcher and policy advisor specializing in international law, governance, and gender equality. She is an LL.B. candidate in International Law and Human Rights, the Founder of WISE (Women for International Studies and Equity), and the Coordinator of Management and Processes at América Observa. As a member of the UNODC YouthLED Integrity Advisory Board and winner of the UNODC Youth Writing Competition, Grecia brings extensive experience conducting evidence-based research on transparency, accountability, and gender justice. She is deeply committed to anti-corruption, integrity, and youth empowerment because she believes youth are critical drivers in dismantling systemic impunity and building transparent, data-informed governance frameworks. Through research, policy advocacy, and intergovernmental engagement, Grecia works to ensure young people and marginalized voices meaningfully shape ethical global policy.
