Mr. Hei Man Lincoln Cheng, 23, China

Lincoln Cheng holds a degree in Philosophy, Politics and Economics with Social Data Science from University College London. A UN Millennium Fellowship alumnus, he previously served as a Global Admissions Committee Team Lead for the programme and has led projects focused on quality education and artificial intelligence. He also served as Research Lead at a think tank with consultative status with the UN Economic and Social Council, leading work on papers submitted to UNDRR and UNHCR. He co-authored UNODC's Stolen Futures whitepapers and translated the global whitepaper into Chinese. His interests centre on youth participation, integrity and technology governance. He is excited to continue supporting the work of UNODC's YouthLED Advisory Board.
