Mr. Jael Alexander Estrada Cardenas, 24, Ecuador

Jael Estrada is the Co-founder and Deputy Director of CPIL (Corporation for Innovation in Leadership for Latin America), a regional organization dedicated to youth civic leadership. He holds a degree in Cinema from Universidad de las Américas and is a fellow of the Aspire Leaders Program and the Konrad Adenauer Foundation. Bringing over three years of experience in Ecuador's public service, Jael specializes in institutional strengthening, accountability, and process integrity within government administration. Through CPIL's "Escuela de Presidentes," he has trained over 100 emerging decision-makers across Latin America in ethics, democratic resilience, and the rule of law. Combining public sector expertise with strategic storytelling and regional youth networks, Jael views anti-corruption as a cultural transformation and is committed to empowering youth as co-designers of transparent institutions.
