Mr. Max Genin, 29, Canada / Israel

Max Genin is an Israeli-Canadian international lawyer, of Ukrainian-Jewish heritage, working in international criminal and cyber law, qualifying in the UK; his LLM examined cybercrime under the Rome Statute. As Youth Advisor to the UN Human Rights Office (OHCHR-EAA), he co-designed the Youth Rights Academy and authored OHCHR's briefer on the UN Convention against Cybercrime (negotiated with UNODC as secretariat). As Steering Member of the Secretary-General's Pact Working Group on Youth, he co-authored the UN's Core Principles for Meaningful Youth Participation for the UN system. Max sits on Transparency International (TI) Canada's Legal Committee (working on beneficial ownership, anti-money laundering) and belongs to TI Israel. Genin is a German Marshall Fund Transatlantic Inclusion Fellow (first Canadian). He holds degrees from LSE, CIFE, Leeds and studies at Harvard. Max joins because corruption in wealthy democracies is quiet, procedural, overt or subversive; youth inherit its costs.
