Ms. Rachida El Rhdioui, 27, Morocco

Rachida El Rhdioui is a visionary African leader working at the intersection of civic engagement, public policy, digital inclusion, and anti-corruption. On a mission to dismantle barriers that exclude individuals from decisions shaping their futures, she equips them with the tools to thrive as active citizens in their communities. She pursues her mission through research, program design, advisory work, policy engagement, and capacity building with a variety of stakeholders. Rachida previously served as a Program Officer with the North African Policy Initiative and is the founder of multiple initiatives, including DigiFortify. Since 2024, she has been a member of the UNODC GRACE Youth-LED Integrity Advisory Board, promoting meaningful youth participation in integrity and anti-corruption efforts. Her leadership has been recognized with awards from the World Internet Conference, the International Republican Institute, the ITU/Huawei, and the Female Founders Global Initiative.
