Ms. Yasmein Abdelghany, 31, Egypt

Yasmein Abdelghany is a multi-awarded peace, education and sustainability specialist and a speaker at high-level events, including intergenerational dialogues with heads of state, with more than seven years of experience working at the national, regional, and international levels. She is working on empowering young people and promoting their right to access a decent education and future. Some of her roles include leading the global team of Education and Migration at UN MGCY, where she works on promoting education for youth on the move, mentoring YOM UNICEF Interns, and Co-Coordinating the Youth Collective Enterprise Network at Restless Development, where she contributes on making entrepreneurship more accessible for young people. Currently, she is a Middle East and North Africa Chair at the UNESCO SDG4 Youth Network, and Africa Education Innovator at the African Union Women, Gender, and Youth Directorate.

back to YouthLED

United Nations
Office on Drugs and Crime

GRACE
Global Resource for Anti-Corruption Education and Youth Empowerment