

Ms. Camila Florencia Tort, 26, Argentina

Camila is a specialist in anti-corruption, open government, and transparency, with expertise in public international law and the Inter-American system. Over the past 4 years, she has worked as a Consultant with the Department of Legal Cooperation of the Secretariat of Legal Affairs at the Organization of American States, which, among other things, functions as the Technical Secretariat of the Inter-American Convention against Corruption, and for the Follow-Up Mechanism for the Implementation of the Inter-American Convention against Corruption (MESICIC). Prior to joining the OAS team, Camila worked at Governance Latam, a legal and consulting firm with a strong focus on preventing and enforcing anti-corruption and anti-money laundering laws and regulations.

Ms. Tort holds a Bachelor of Arts in International Studies from Universidad Torcuato Di Tella, with a specialization in Law; and a Master's degree in Global Rule of Law and Constitutional Democracy from the Universitat de Girona and the Università degli Studi di Genova. Her master's graduation thesis on "The Social Costs of Transnational Corporations' Corruption and the Duty to Compensate" focused on the role of transnational corporations in promoting corruption and the negative impact their practices have on the citizens' rights and interests.

Camila is a member of the International Anti-Corruption Academy (IACA) Alumni, having successfully participated in the 2020 IACA Summer Academy. In 2021, she joined the 2021-2023 IACA Master in Anti-Corruption Studies cohort to acquire new tools and knowledge that will allow her to continue contributing to the fight against corruption and impunity in the Americas and globally.
