

Mr. Hei Man Lincoln Cheng, 21, China

Lincoln Cheng is a third-year student pursuing a BSc in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics with Data Science at University College London (UCL). Currently serving as President of the UCL United Nations Association, he leads initiatives focused on engaging young people in global issues, including sustainability and integrity.

As a UN Millennium Fellow, Lincoln is also actively involved in projects aligned with the UN Sustainable Development Goals, particularly those addressing quality education and reducing inequalities. His experience spans public speaking, strategic partnerships, and leadership in both local and international forums, including collaborations with prominent institutions such as Tsinghua University, and speaking on Forums like the Global Youth Summit for a Net Zero Future. Driven by a strong commitment to social impact and advancing the UN Sustainable Development Goals, Lincoln finds the opportunity to support the work of the YouthLED Integrity Advisory Board exciting!
