

Ms. Serena Ibrahim, 30, Lebanon

Serena is the founder of YAC –Youth Against Corruption and a sustainability and smart cities consultant at Deloitte Middle East. Serena holds an International master's degree in Sustainable territorial development and a master's degree in Architecture.

In June 2021, she was selected by the President of the UN General Assembly to deliver a youth statement, summarizing the outcome of the Youth Forum discussions, during the opening of the special session of the General Assembly (UNGASS) against corruption.

Her interest in corruption emerged from the fact that she was born and raised in Lebanon, a country where systemic corruption has dreadful impacts on the lives of youth.

Today, she is committed to fighting for a more sustainable and fair future for victims of corrupt systems and to create an international movement of youth who have the humility, creativity and courage to break the corruption chain.
