

Abduganiyev Uchkun Khabibulla ugli was born in 1994. Ethnicity Uzbek. He currently resides in Tashkent, the capital of Uzbekistan. Economist by profession. During his bachelor's degree, he studied Taxes and Taxation (2018). In 2021, he graduated from NRNU MEPhI University with a Master's degree in Economics, in the "Economic Security" program. He started his career at The Lawyers training center under the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Uzbekistan. Today he works as an assistant lecturer at the Department of Financial Analysis and Auditing in Tashkent State University of Economics. Uchkun is married and has one child.

His main goal in life is to contribute to the best of his ability to the development of society and humanity. His research interests are in ensuring the country's economic security, combating corruption and reducing its economic consequences, decreasing the level of shadow economy and to rid society of various vices. The young researcher continues his research on "Ensuring economic security in the country by reducing the shadow economy and corruption" and is preparing a PhD dissertation.

During his scientific career, Uchkun Abduganiyev has published 3 textbooks (co-authored), 4 articles and 7 theses. He participated as an executor in the practical project PZ-20170928486 - "Improvement of the legal framework for the liability of legal entities for corruption offenses" for 2018-2020, implemented by the Lawyers training center under the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Uzbekistan. Currently he is participant of the Good Governance and Anti-corruption Online Course at the Riga Graduate School of Law, Latvia.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/uchkunabduganiyev-591818172>

UNODC

United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

Global Resource for Anti-Corruption
Education and Youth Empowerment