

QUESTION CARDS

What factors make up integrity?

- a. Ethics
- b. Accountability
- c. Competence
- d. Corruption controls
- e. Feedback

A teacher has demanded you give them money for marking your work.

What should you do?

- a. Accuse them directly, and raise the alarm by shouting at the top of your voice
- b. Give them the money as you need your work to be marked
- c. Report it immediately to the head teacher or a responsible adult

There is a problem with a public service in your area. The problem means that you cannot access this service.

Who is responsible for improving this service?

- a. Me
- b. Everyone in my community
- c. Wealthy people in my community
- d. The authorities

What does accountability mean?

- a. Being able to add numbers together
- b. Being skilled at a particular task
- c. Letting someone know when you have seen something you think is wrong
- d. Doing what you said you would do, and let other people check that you did it

Which of the following should you do when meeting an authority?

- a. Make an appointment and arrive on time
- b. Dress smartly
- c. Bring evidence of the issue you want to discuss
- d. Invite all of your friends and family
- e. All of the above

Whose voice is important to be listened to by authorities?

- a. People with lots of money
- b. People with lots of power
- c. Doctors
- d. Politicians
- e. People who are at risk of exclusion

Which of the following is an example of two-way communication?

- a. Social media
- b. Leaflets
- c. Phone calls
- d. A newspaper article

Which of the following is an example of one-way communication?

- a. Social media
- b. Community meetings
- c. Posters
- d. Door to door visits

What type of projects should be a priority for citizens to monitor?

- a. National projects that are very technical
- b. Projects that are located far away
- c. Projects that matter to the community
- d. Projects that are located in another community

What does inclusion mean?

- a. Giving equal access and opportunity to everybody and removing discrimination and other barriers to involvement
- b. Making sure everyone is invited to a community meeting
- c. Making sure there is an equal representation of all groups in society
- d. All of the above

Which of these are barriers to inclusion?

- a. A meeting being held during school hours
- b. A leaflet not being available in Braille
- c. Only stairs to access the second floor of a building
- d. Girls not being allowed to play football
- e. All of the above

You find out that there is a new health centre being built in your community, but you do not know anything about it.

What can you do?

- a. Ask for information from the contractor, implementing agency or local authority
- b. Stage a protest: the builders should know your feelings
- c. Nothing, it does not matter to you

Which of the following describes a person acting with integrity?

- a. A poor man finding and handing in a purse to the police, even though no one saw him pick it up
- b. A local official publishing his salary in the local newspaper
- c. All of the above

A service you use is falling into disrepair.

Which 2 things can you do to help fix it?

- a. Collect evidence of disrepair
- b. Do nothing, someone else will sort it out
- c. Present evidence to the person responsible in maintaining the service
- d. Report it to the police

Who is it important to have represented in an Integrity Club?

- a. Only the students that do the best in their exams
- b. Students whose parents are members of the government
- c. Only the oldest students
- d. Students that fairly represent the different social groups (boys, girls, people with disability, etc) within school

As a citizen, how can you actively participate in your community?

- a. Vote in elections
- b. Write to local newspapers about issues in your community
- c. Become a monitor
- d. All of the above

What is a 'fix'?

- a. Somebody in the community solving a problem that a local official doesn't want to solve
- b. A citizen giving the resources needed to correct an issue
- c. The person responsible for the problem putting in place a solution, which is verified by citizens

What does 'SDG' stand for?

- a. Solutions for Disadvantaged Girls
- b. Society, Development and Greatness
- c. Sustainable Development Goal

What day is marked by December 9th?

- a. International chocolate eating day
- b. International Education day
- c. International Anti-Corruption Day

a. Which of the following is SDG 16?

b. Good Health and Well-being

c. Quality Education

d. Sustainable Cities and Communities

e. Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions

What does competence mean?

a. Being able to do a job well

b. Behaving in line with the rules

c. Doing what we said we would do

d. Publishing information openly

Which of the following actions qualifies as corruption?

a. Turning up late for an appointment

b. Shouting at someone in the street

c. A teacher accepting an expensive gift in return for giving a better grade to their student

What day is marked by March the 8th?

a. International chocolate eating day

b. International Women's Day

c. International Life-saving day

What steps can communities take to build integrity?

- a. They engage
- b. They become monitors
- c. They fix problems
- d. All of the above

A road is being built through a village.

Who needs to be consulted in the community for the project to be successful?

- a. No-one needs to be consulted
- b. The local officials
- c. Farmers who grow food on the land where the road is proposed
- d. Anyone affected by the road

State who benefits from following steps to be inclusive?

A newspaper article read aloud, a door-to-door visit and a community meeting held on the ground floor

Answer: Someone with a visual impairment or a person that is illiterate, someone with limited transport/mobility or time, and someone living with a physical disability

Which of the following are good examples of values to be a citizen with integrity?

- a. I must respect the laws of my country and the authority of the bodies charged with the administering of the public affairs
- b. I represent and I am committed to the public interest and the good of the community
- c. I must not give or receive bribes to or from anyone
- d. All of the above

Which of the following could be used as a formula for integrity?

- a. Integrity = Accountability + Competence + Ethical Behaviour + Corruption
- b. Integrity = (Accountability + Competence) x (Behaviour x Corruption)
- c. Integrity = (Accountability + Competence + Ethical Behaviour) - Corruption

A contractor has acted aggressively towards you when you asked for information.

What can you do?

- a. Stay silent
- b. Go alone to report them to the authorities
- c. Report them to the authorities with the support of a responsible adult
- d. Respond aggressively

What law can be used to help a citizen demand information from someone in authority?

- a. Freedom of Information laws
- b. Copyright laws
- c. Right to education

QUESTION
CARD

QUESTION
CARD

QUESTION
CARD

QUESTION
CARD

QUESTION
CARD

QUESTION
CARD

QUESTION
CARD

QUESTION
CARD